Boarding Rules & Regulations

To ensure that your pet is rested and relaxed while you are away, the following rules and regulations are enforced:

Medication(s)

We can administer your pet's medications during their stay. Medications must be in original packaging with pet's name, medication type and dosage instructions.

- Pills, Ointments: $6.50 per day flat rate
- Injections: $10.50 per day flat rate

Personal Items

Wheeling Animal Hospital & Pet Resort is not responsible for the loss of any personal item, any damage caused to a personal item, or any harm caused to the pet by its own personal items.

- Pets are allowed four personal item each. (No Rawhide Treats)
- Food is considered one item.
- Each personal item must be clearly marked with a permanent, nontoxic marker.
- Each personal item must show the pet's first and/or last name.

Food

- We provide Science Diet® brand food at no charge (formula based on pet's need.)
- If your pet is on a special diet or if you prefer to bring your own food, it must be premeasured in a resealable bag or airtight container. This way your pet will receive the exact amount of food s/he receives at home, and it will stay fresh.

Toys

- Appropriate toys include those that are inedible and indestructible (e.g., KONG®, Nylabone®, Toughies®). Rawhide, pig ears, hooves, etc., are not accepted for use in our facility.

Bedding

Personal bedding is highly discouraged for numerous health concerns. Complimentary Cozy Pads and Cots are provided for your pet to rest comfortably. If you do bring a bed, IT MUST be able to be taken apart, (ex: zippers, or velcro access points), so we can remove stuffing/padding before washing if soiled.

Daily rates begin on the day of check-in. No charge will be incurred on the day of pick up if done so before 12 p.m. Sunday pick ups are from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. and you are charged for Sunday. These pick ups must be pre-paid.*
